

A Galaxy Divided

By Ray Phoenix

Although, the Confederate City which was located on a space craft was destroyed, the Confederacy is still at large and is under command from the evil Jedi, Darth Maul. The Confederacy has taken over more systems in the galaxy and has plans to set up a large blockade and force-field to divide the galaxy in half making it impossible to travel from one end of the galaxy to another. The Confederacy is in a winning position in this war being fought between their battle droids and the Republic's Clone troopers. The fate of the galaxy rests in the hands of Jedi Master Obi-Wan Kenobi and Jedi Knight Anakin Skywalker as they are sent to lead the Republic armies to the outer most reaches of space and find resources the Republic needs to win the war on the planet Altyr V.

Chapter 1

Altyr V is a remote planet that contains energy crystal mines. Clones work in the mines to mine for the crystals. Obi-Wan is in the mine overseeing the mining. A Clone prospector takes a bag of crystals and dumps them on a table in front of Obi-Wan. Obi-Wan looks through the crystals. Obi-Wan said, "These are the type of crystals we need. You may continue to search where you found them." Obi-Wan leaves the scene and he walks into a tunnel in the mine and he appears in a command center. He sees Clones and other people working at the computers. Obi-Wan goes to one of them and he said, "Did you find any readings of any life forms?" The man said, "I have not found anything. It is too remote on the surface for anyone to want to live on this place. This place may not pose a threat to the battle droids that will probably come looking for us." Obi-Wan said, "The only reason why we are here is to mine. We are not here to hide from the Confederacy. If they find us here, we will have to escape. You are a great man, Bale Organa, and I would hate to lose you or any of you. I understand that things are going bad right now for the Republic and you were drafted to fight in this war since we are running out of Clones. I will protect you and all of the other senators and civilians we have here working for us."

Obi-Wan walks down a hallway and he runs into Anakin. Obi-Wan said, "Anakin, have you looked over the reports I handed to you?" Anakin said, "I looked over them and gave them to Master Sin Dralig." Obi-Wan said, "Thank you again Anakin." Anakin leaves the scene and he walks into a living section. He sees Padme in there. Anakin said, "Padme, we've been apart for what seems like an eternity." Padme said, "It has only been a few hours.” Anakin said, “A few hours might as well be a lifetime in this place. This place is boring. When is there going to be some action?” Padme said, “Be careful of what you wish for.” The Professor enters the room. The Professor said, “Anakin, Padme, I need to see you at once in my lab. It is an emergency.” Anakin said, “Can't Obi-Wan deal with this right now?” Professor said, “Obi-Wan and Sin Dralig are busy right now and they will not listen to me. You will so, come.” Anakin said, “I guess we have no other choice.”

Anakin and Padme are in the Professor's lab looking over at his computer. The Professor said, “My computer systems and other machines in here are detecting active space crafts moving around in orbit. They contain mostly droid units. I think the Confederates are on to us.” Anakin looks at the computer and he said, “Did you take your meds today? There are a lot of things that could be going on up there.” The Professor said, “I'm sure this is the Confederates. What else would it be?” The lab shakes and things fall off a table and break. The Professor said, “That was a laser blast.” The room goes dark and red emergency lights flash in the place. A voice reads, “Confederate troops have entered the base. Prepare for evacuation at once!” Anakin said, “Well, let's get out of here then.”

Anakin leaves the lab and Padme and the Professor leave with blasters. They turn a corner and they see battle droids in the place. Padme and the Professor shoot down the battle droids. They run into the next room. They see Obi-Wan and Sin Dralig surrounded by shielded battle droids. Anakin runs behind them and he destroys their shields and Obi-Wan and Sin Dralig destroy the droids. Obi-Wan said, “Thanks for the help Anakin. The contents of crystals we collected are too valuable to fall into their hands. We need to protect them at all costs. Anakin, I want you to be in charged of watching the crystals being delivered to the transports. Padme, Professor, you help bring the crystals over.”

Anakin, Padme, and the Professor bring loads of crystals into the transports. The transports take off. Obi-Wan gets into a Jedi Starfighter and he takes off and he gets into formation with a squadron of Clone fighters. They enter orbit and they see Confederate battle ships everywhere. The battle ships deploy hundreds of fighters. Obi-Wan engages the fighters and he keeps them away from the transports. Obi-Wan sees that the fighters are equipped with ion cannons. The droid fighters fire ion beams at the transports with the crystals. Obi-Wan destroys a few of the fighters and he dogfights with a few others. Another group of droid fighters go after Obi-Wan. Obi-Wan is being chased by the droid fighters. Obi-Wan concentrates hard and he uses the force to move the droid fighters with ion cannons into each other causing them to crash and explode. Obi-Wan gets shot at and he spins out of control. Obi-Wan leaves the scene.

Back on the planet, People are rushing to escape transports and they leave the planet and they enter orbit. Sin Dralig looks over some things and he is with C-3PO and R2-D2. Sin Dralig is stopped by a large security door. C-3PO said, “We'll have R2 look over this.” R2 works the computer and he opens up the door and Darth Maul is on the other side of it. Darth Maul said, “Master Sin Dralig, long time no see.” Sin Dralig said, “I have no business with you. I just want to get out of here in peace. You can have whatever we leave behind.” Darth Maul said, “I don't care about what you leave behind. I only care about what you are leaving the place with.” Darth Maul takes out his duel bladed lightsaber and he activates it. Sin Dralig takes out his green lightsaber and he duels Darth Maul. Darth Maul swings his lightsaber around in a circular motion and Sin Dralig hits the lightsaber with his lightsaber. Sin Dralig said, “You are making a fool of yourself.” Darth Maul said, “You're the real fool here.

You still follow the Republic even though it is corrupt and evil.” Sin Dralig said, “You’re the one that is corrupt and evil.” They continue to duel. And C-3PO and R2 leave the scene.

Anakin and Padme get to the transport but it gets bombed down and destroyed. Anakin and Padme see the destruction. Anakin takes out his commlink and he said, “Our main primary transport has been destroyed. We will get out with Padme’s ship.” Anakin and Padme head for her ship. C-3PO and R2 are waiting outside of the ship. C-3PO said, “It is about time you got here. I was in deep fear that you were killed.” Anakin said, “Well, we weren’t.” The doors to the ship open and Anakin, Padme, C-3PO and R2 enter the ship. The ship leaves the hanger. It enters orbit of the planet.

In orbit of the planet, the transports carrying the crystals get destroyed by the Confederates. More ships containing civilians and clones are being disabled and captured by the Confederates. Anakin looks at the whole scene and he said, “This is a disaster. What are we supposed to do?” Padme said, “You’re the brave leader here. You know more about this than I do.” The ship receives a message from Obi-Wan. A holograph of Obi-Wan appears on the ship’s computer. Obi-Wan said, “Anakin, you have your orders. Protect Padme and try not to fall into Confederate traps. Stay where it is safe. The Republic will message you with further information.” Anakin said, “I guess all we do now is sit here and wait.”

Obi-Wan returns to Coruscant and he stands in the Jedi counsel. Mace Windu and Yoda and other Jedi look over him. Mace Windu said, “You tell us that our crystal ships were destroyed?” Obi-Wan said, “That is how it seems.” Mace does a face-palm and he said, “The Confederacy has just been placed into a position where they can win at any moment if they want to.” Obi-Wan said, “They haven’t officially defeated us yet.” Mace said, “I know why they have not defeated us yet. They want Anakin. He destroyed their space city and he destroyed countless battle droid units and flag ships of theirs for the last few years. They want him for themselves. We need to make sure Anakin is protected from them. Where is Anakin?” Obi-Wan said, “Anakin was separated from us when we evacuated the planet. I told him to stay away from any Confederate forces and move away from this war as far as he can.” Mace said, “You don’t know where he is though.” Obi-Wan said, “No one knows where he is and we believe he is with Padme, C-3PO, and R2-D2.” Yoda said, “Survival training for Anakin, this is. Learn to live on his own and defend himself, he will.” Mace said, “I hope you’re right. If not, then galaxy will be in a lot of trouble.”

Chapter 2

The streets of Coruscant are poor and slum looking. Buildings are destroyed and damaged up and people wait in lines for food stamps. There are fewer people in the streets. Homeless people live in alleyways. There is chaos in the senate. Chancellor Palpatine stands on the main stage and he watches people argue over political things. The chancellor said, “Order!” People stop arguing. Chancellor said, “Which is the best course of action. We are on the losing side of the war.” A senator said, “Why don’t we just join the Confederacy and give in to their demands. They can't be that bad." Another senator said, "You would be getting rid of your freedom and everything else you value." A senator sitting in the back and is not fighting or arguing with anyone raises his hand and he said, "Why don't we just give all the power of the senate to Chancellor Palpatine? He has kept the Republic running during the war and he has guided us through plenty of challenges. I think we should give all power to him." Another senator said, "Are you crazy? We will be a dictatorship then and we will be just as bad as those Confederates we've been fighting against for the last few years." Another senator said, "That might just work. We won't have to make decisions anymore." All the senators look at the Chancellor and another senator said, "Could he really work as a soul leader?" The senators think to themselves.

Darth Maul is on a control ship in space. He sees several of his flagships are aligned with each other. A battle droid said, "Lord Maul, our ships are in perfected alignment." Darth Maul said, "Good, set my plan into motion." Battle droids pull switches and flick levers and one of the flagships fires out a beam at another flag ship. Another flag ship shoots a beam at the other one. They all fire beams at each other and they form a large force-field together that creates a giant wall in the galaxy.

News crews are on the scene and they show what is happening on TV. The Jedi counsel is in their seats and Obi-Wan is there too and they watch the TV. They see what is happening. The news reporter appears to be in the control ship with Darth Maul. She hands the microphone to Darth Maul and he said, "You see, I created a giant force-field wall that completely divides the galaxy. You now do not have access to the Confederate worlds. We have access to yours though. I've managed to power this with the crystals we stole from you on Altyr V. Just admit it now, you have lost." Obi-Wan looks at the Jedi in the counsel and he said, "What are we going to do about this?" Yoda said, "Cloudy our minds are on the subject. In my hundreds of years of life, I have not yet encountered something more drastic." Mace Windu said, "We will try to do what we can. We will see if we can contact, Anakin and see where he is."

Anakin, Padme, C-3PO, and R2-D2 are in their ship and they have a TV and they are watching what just happened. Padme said, "I didn't think that Darth Maul had it in him to create a wall in the galaxy and have us pay for it." Anakin said, "When I get my hands on that Darth Maul..." C-3PO said, "Master Anakin, I have found the nearest safe planet." Anakin looks at the computer and he sees the nearest safe planet is Tatooine. Anakin said, "We cannot go to Tatooine." Padme said, "Why not?" Anakin said, "I'm from that place. The Confederacy used to go there. That is where they first found me. They might go back there looking for me." Padme said, "What other choice do we have? We cannot live in this ship forever and we need a place to stay. We could be stuck on this side of the galaxy for the foreseeable future." An armada of Confederate ships enter the scene and they surround the ship Anakin and Padme are in. Padme said, "Are those..." Anakin said, "They sure as hell are." Anakin and Padme go to the front controls. Anakin said, "Go to battle stations!" C-3PO and R2 go to computer controls elsewhere on the ship. Anakin said, "What kind of weapons do we have?" Padme said, "This is a senator's transport ship for diplomatic purposes. We do not have any weapons on this ship." Anakin said, "How can you have a ship without any weapons?" Padme said, "I don't know. I didn't make this ship."

Anakin tries to fly the ship away but the enemy frigates catch up. Darth Maul's face appears on the TV in the ship. Darth Maul said, "Anakin Skywalker, we meet again." Anakin said, "I don't have time for this." Darth Maul said, "You have plenty of time where you are going." The frigates fire at the ship and several of their shots hit Anakin's ship. Anakin steers the ship around and he loops it around the shots. Padme said, "We need to go to Tatooine." Anakin said, "Not on my watch. We are being followed. We would be dead for sure if we went there." Padme said, "Those ships seem pretty maneuverable for flagships." Anakin sees the ships are flying around fast and doing some complex maneuvers. Anakin gets the ships on his tail. Anakin stops the ship and he lets the other ships go for him. The other ships get close to him and he twirls the ship around and he causes the other ships to do the same but they fly too close to each other and they crash into each other and they get destroyed. Anakin dodges the debris and he flies the ship away from the destruction. He flies the ship right up to the surface of another one of the flagships and it fires a swarm of ion missiles and proton torpedoes. Anakin does some more moves and he tricks the torpedoes and ion blasts to hit the flagship. The flagship gets badly hit and it explodes. Anakin turns off the ship and he lets the ship float away in the debris clouds left by the destroyed ships.

Padme said, "I have to admit, that was pretty impressive." Anakin said, "You think?" C-3PO said, "What did you do out there? I thought they had us for sure." Anakin said, "They will. They will come back for us and in bigger numbers." Padme said, "I think we should go to Tatooine. We will get killed if we stay up here." Anakin said, "I hardly agree with you." Anakin takes the ship down to the planet Tatooine and they land on the outskirts of a city. Padme said, "Do you know anyone that lives here?" Anakin said, "I have a brother that is a moisture farmer. I'm sure he would gladly take us."

In the Confederate control ship, Darth Maul looks over Confederate Admirals. Darth Maul said, "What kind of idiots do I have working for me?" One of the Admirals said, "Ones like us." Darth Maul said, "So you admit you are stupid? That is not going to cut it. I trusted all of you to bring Anakin Skywalker to me and look what you did. You idiots got three of my flagships destroyed. Flagships do not grow on trees. That is why I got bounty hunters to help us." One of the Admirals said, "Bounty hunters? We don't need their scum here." Darth Maul shows them a group of bounty hunters. They see different types of droids and aliens enter. They see a space man enter too. The space man said, "Jango Fett reporting in." Darth Maul said, "Good. I have called all of you here to bring me Anakin Skywalker. He could be powerful to me. I want you to keep him alive." Darth Maul goes to Jango Fett's face and Darth Maul said, "No disintegration."

Chapter 3

Anakin, Padme, C-3PO and R2 are in a neighborhood on Tatooine. Anakin said, "I think this is the place." They knock on the door and they are let in by a droid. Anakin's brother enters the scene. Anakin's brother said, "So, you finally came back. I wondered when that would be." Anakin said, "Owen, we were attacked by the Confederates and we have come here to hide.” Owen said, “Nonsense, the Confederates were here years ago. Actually they have not been here in years. It is ironic how the Confederacy's stronghold is now a safe haven for all you to hide. Sure you can hide here. Who's the lady?” Anakin said, “This is Padme, my girlfriend.” Owen kisses her hand and he said, “Come on in. I see you brought your droids over. I am sure they could do well to serve me.” C-3PO said, “I never worked on a moisture farm before.” Owen said, “So you must be one of those new protocol droids I've been hearing about. You must be programmed for protocol. How many languages do you speak?” C-3PO said, “About six million.” Owen said, “Do you speak Botchie?” C-3PO said, “Of course I speak Botchie, it is a second language to me.” Owen said, “Great. We could use you around here. I bought a protocol droid six months ago and it malfunctioned and I am still waiting on a replacement. I'm sure you could be a good sub until then.” 3PO said, “I guess so.” Owen said, “Let's have a seat. I am sure we have a lot to talk about.”

Obi-Wan and a group of Jedi are in a Jedi transport ship and they observe the force-field. Obi-Wan looks at a computer and he said, “It looks like they really sealed us in tight. Why would they do something like this?” Mace Windu said, “There probably is some kind of higher reason for this. They are probably working on something in there and they don't want us to know about it.” Obi-Wan said, “That sounds logical.” The Professor is in a space suit. The Professor said, “We are flying right by the main control center of the force-field. I will go outside and observe.” The Professor leaves the ship and he is tethered to the ship. He goes to a computer terminal that they can access. The Professor sees that it is locked and he sees two gaps in the computer that can be filled by a large key of some kind. The Professor goes back in the ship. The Professor said, “It looks like it may be possible for us to open up the force-field from our side. We need two keys to do it.” Obi-Wan said, “Where do you suppose those two keys are?” The Professor said, “A good guess would be that they are located very far from here and they are on the other side of the force-field that we do not have access to.” Obi-Wan said, “Anakin Skywalker is on the other side of the force-field. Maybe he could help us. Is it possible to send any communications through the force-field?” A clone looks over a computer and he said, “It is possible sir.” Obi-Wan said, “We will send a message to Anakin. In the meantime, we should check the systems that we still have access to if there are any traces of the keys or anything that can link us to where they are.” Mace Windu said, “We will send out Clone search parties for that. We may need to fight for the keys.” Obi-Wan said, “This is going to get fun.” A clone in the ship said, “Masters, we just got word that they invaded Mon Calamari.” Mace said, “We will go there now.”

Anakin, Owen, and Padme sit at a table and they have drinks. Owen said, “The Republic has been falling to pieces. That was even before this stupid war started. Even before we were invaded all those years back, the Republic did very little for us. There are a lot of poor people out here and the Republic chooses to do nothing. The Confederates came and the Republic still did nothing. I don't care if that Republic falls apart. They are getting what they deserve.” Anakin said, “There still is hope for the Republic. The Republic has been good for the last thousand generations and I would hate to see it go.” Owen said, “Face it, the Republic is dying and there is nothing we can do about it. If you were actually smart, you would know that there is nothing you can do for the Republic and you would come and live with me. You can work on my farm with me. It is a fun job and it is rewarding.” Anakin said, “Saving lives and fighting in this current Clone Wars is more important to me.” Owen said, “Suit yourself. At least you have an alternative if your other job fails.”

Jango Fett is in his ship, the Slave I. His son is in there with him. Jango looks over the planets and he has a radar that detects the ship they are looking for (Anakin's ship). Jango takes the ship and he enters a door in the force-field and he goes to the other side of the force-field. His son said, "Father, why are we going to the other end of space?" Jango said, "Look Boba, it is not all about trying to find that one man you are looking for. It also involves doing much more by giving your master more than what they paid for. Darth Maul hates Jedi and so do I so I will give him more than just simply finding Anakin. There appears to be some action involving Jedi going down on the planet Mon Calamari. That is not far from where we are. We will go there and help our friends out. Those other bounty hunters Maul hired are quacks. They won't find Anakin." The Slave I flies off to the planet.

On the planet Mon Calamari, The Jedi fight off battle droids. Obi-Wan cuts down a droid and he cuts down another one. Mace Windu uses the force and he makes a squadron of droid fighters crash into each other. One of the Mon Calamari defenders is in a robot mech and it fires rounds of laser blasts at the droids. A droid with a purple space bazooka launches a shot at the robot mech and the defender jumps out before his mech gets destroyed. He rolls on the ground and he takes out a blaster and he guns down a few droids. The Mon Calamari defender fights behind Obi-Wan. The Mon Calamari said, "I am Ackbar of the planet Mon Calamari." Obi-Wan said, "I am Obi-Wan Kenobi, a Jedi Master of the Republic." Ackbar said, "I know why these droids are here." Obi-Wan said, "Why is that?" Ackbar said, "I stole something that belongs to them. It is a key and if you have the other one it will turn off the force-field wall. I have one of the keys locked in storage somewhere." Obi-Wan said, "We are on a quest right now to find both of those keys." Ackbar said, "Jedi came to my rescue and they are fighting to save my planet. I trust you Jedi. I will take you there and you can have the key." Obi-Wan said, "Thanks. We need more people like you on our side." Obi-Wan said, "Clone group Theta and Organa, come with me!"

Obi-Wan, Senator Organa, and a group of clones comes with Ackbar to a strange building under the sea. Ackbar said, "It is this way." Ackbar leads them around a wall and they are in the room with the key. Ackbar said, "Here is the key." Obi-Wan takes the key. Then, a group of droids show up in the place. Organa shoots down some of them and Obi-Wan cuts some of them up. Clones shoot down the rest of them. Then, some of the clones get shot down by Jango Fett. Jango Fett is in the place. Jango Fett said, "Look at this. It looks like you got one of the keys that I want. That key is mine." Obi-Wan said, "Look, it is unlawful that Darth Maul built a large wall dividing the Republic. It is only fair that we take the key." Jango Fett said, "No you don't." Jango Fett takes out his arm and he has a flame thrower on it. Obi-Wan blocks the flame with his lightsaber. Jango Fett kicks Obi-Wan's hand and Obi-Wan drops his lightsaber and it rolls over the floor. Obi-Wan fights Jango Fett with melee attacks. Obi-Wan flips Jango into where everyone else is. Ackbar and Organa start beating up Jango. Jango fires a missile out of his jet-pack and it hits the space next to Obi-Wan and Obi-Wan goes flying and the key flies out of his hands and it rolls over the floor. Organa picks it up and Jango Fett jumps on Organa and they fight over it. Ackbar joins in the fight. Jango takes a small blaster and he shoots Organa in one of his legs and he shoots Ackbar in one of his legs. They fall to the floor in pain. Jango uses his jet-pack and he dashes out of the place with the key.

Obi-Wan uses the force to pick up his lightsaber and he throws it at Jango and it gets stuck in his jet-pack. Jango falls to the floor in a round hallway with windows that view what is under the sea. Obi-Wan runs back to Jango with his lightsaber out. Obi-Wan tries to hit Jango with it and Jango shoots his small blaster and he hits Obi-Wan's hand and Obi-Wan drops his lightsaber. Jango fires a few shots at the glass and the glass completely breaks and water flows into the hallway. Obi-Wan swims in the water and he fights Jango Fett under the sea. Jango uses a sonic wave gun and he knocks Obi-Wan far beneath the sea. Obi-Wan sees Jango is getting way far away and Obi-Wan swims to where his friends are and he rescues them.

Jango gets back to the shore where clones and droids and exchanging volleys of blaster fire. Jango runs through the blaster fire and he gets to the Slave I and he takes off and leaves with the key. Obi-Wan gets back to the shore and he sees Jango leaving. Obi-Wan gets to a Jedi Starfighter and he takes off and he flies after Jango. He gets into orbit with Jango. Jango sees Obi-Wan is there and Jango fires several shots at Obi-Wan. Obi-Wan dodges the shots and Obi-Wan fires some proton torpedoes at Jango. Jango dodges all of the torpedoes and he fires some concussion missiles at them and destroys them. Obi-Wan chases Jango through an asteroid belt. Obi-Wan shoots down some asteroids and he dodges some of them. Jango leaves some mines behind Obi-Wan. Obi-Wan rotates and moves around them. One of the mines slowly moves through space and it hits an asteroid and it is detonated and it causes mass destruction in the asteroid belt. Obi-Wan goes at full throttle and he chases after Jango and Jango gets close to the force-field wall that separates the galaxy. Obi-Wan is right behind Jango and Jango slips through the force-field and he is on the other side and Obi-Wan cannot get through the force-field. Obi-Wan said, "Blasted fighter! This is Master Kenobi here, we lost the key." Mace is on the other end of the line. Mace said, "Things are looking bad here. The Confederacy has created a blockade around Mon Calamari. Most of the population has been evacuated. We will bring Ackbar with us since he seems to be a resourceful agent that could serve us. Return to the counsel now." Obi-Wan turns his ship for there.

Chapter 4

Jango Fett arrives on the planet Korriban. He lands the Slave I and he sees Darth Maul there. Jango Fett, Boba Fett, and Darth Maul walk through a building that looks like a medieval church. Jango Fett shows Darth Maul the key. Darth Maul said, "Good. You recovered the key. Now we have both of the keys on this side. I cannot trust it here though." Jango said, "Why not?" Darth Maul said, "This place is our main base of operations. We have all our secrets here. There is at least one powerful Jedi that poses a threat to our cause. He is on this side of the force-field. If he finds this place which he most likely will, he will have both keys. We cannot let that happen. I trust you with the one key and I will trust my Master with the other key. With this, there is no way the Jedi will get both keys." Darth Maul takes Jango and Boba to another room and he shows them a red projection of a sphere with a laser dish on it. Darth Maul said, "This is the new weapon we are working on. I call this, the Death Star. It will replace that space city that I had that was lost to that creep, Anakin. By the way, I forgot to ask you, how's it been for you and your son since you lost your wife to that Jedi last year?" Jango said, "It's been hard but I've learned to cope well. I'm not sure about my son though. I still thank you for this awesome job you have given me. It is great to get paid to take out people you hate." Darth Maul said, "Right you are."

Chancellor Palpatine is in a dark room on some dark planet wearing a black robe sitting in a chair and looking over at the landscape. The senator that suggested that Palpatine becomes a dictator enters the room. Palpatine said, "Senator Vree, you have come." Vree said, "I am here for the money you have promised me." Palpatine said, "Of course. Here it is." Palpatine uses the force to give Vree a bag of money. Palpatine said, "I am grateful you got to serve me in the senate. This is the first step into poisoning their minds into thinking I actually am a great leader so they will make me their dictator. Only then will we rule the galaxy and end this pointless war." Lightning flashes.

Anakin and Owen are in the crop fields dusting crops on Tatooine during the day where it is very hot. Owen said, "Crops are in a high demand since there has been a shortage of them since the invasion. I am one of the only people on the planet that has a crop field." Anakin said, "You must be very important to this place then." Owen said, "I am. Only, no one else seems to think that." Then some people come by and they said, "Hey Owen, do you have any crops for us?" Owen said, "No, I told you that last week and I still cannot give you any crops for free." The guy in that group of people said, "Come on! We are poor and you are reeling in the dough. Is that too much to ask for?" Owen said, "You have to wait your turn. There is a long waiting list for them." The guy said, "Screw that!" He takes out a gun and all the people in the group take out their guns and they aim them at Owen. Owen said, "Okay now, fellas. We don't need to come down to this. We can settle this like civilized men." Anakin takes out his lightsaber and he cuts down all their guns. They freak out. One of them said, "Dude, this guy is a Jedi man. He has one of those magic swords. We gotta get out of here." They leave the place in fear. Anakin said, "Don't come back now." Owen said, "You didn't need to be that harsh on them." Anakin said, "How is that harsh? They downright took arms against you. You need to learn to defend yourself or you may have been dead." Owen said, "I guess you are kind of right on that part."

Obi-Wan and Jedi from the Jedi counsel are in Chancellor Palpatine's office. Chancellor Palpatine said, "I have an early Life Day gift for all of you." Chancellor Palpatine shows one of the keys to the force-field. Mace picks it up and he looks at it. Mace said, "It seems like the right key. How did you get this?" Palpatine said, "Let's just say, I know people." Mace said, "What is the next course of action in this war?" Palpatine said, "Our spies that we had on the other side that got stuck there have given us some information on Darth Maul. They told us that he is stationed on the planet Korriban. He lives in a castle there in the desert with a whole arena there. We are debating whether the senate will vote to attack that place or not. We lost Mon Calamari and the senate has very little faith in the Republic now. There are poor people everywhere and..." A poor man walks in the office and he said, "Money for the poor?" Mace gives the man a coin and Obi-Wan does the same." The man said, "Thanks" and he leaves the office. Palpatine said, "That's what I'm trying to tell you guys. People keep doing that. If it were up to me to decide then I would say we attack Korriban for sure once the force-field is down. There is another place we can go to. There is a race track on a gambling planet not far from here. We have the Professor there as a spy and he tells us there is Confederate activity there. Maybe we should go there.” Mace looks at Obi-Wan and he said, “Are you ready for another challenge?” Obi-Wan said, “I am always up for a challenge.” Mace said, “We will go to the gambling planet separately and we will split up. We will have a better chance at taking it down and we might find out other things there while we are at it.” They leave the room.

Chapter 5

The Slave I lands on the planet Tatooine. Jango Fett gets out and he walks around the town. He sees the people that were at Owen's farm on the street telling people about what happened. The guy said, “Then there was this Jedi that took out his magical sword and he destroyed our guns with it. Look at this.” He shows the listeners his gun that was destroyed with Anakin's lightsaber.” Jango Fett joins in on this and he said, “Where was this Jedi?” The man said, “He was over at Owen Lars' farm. We could take you there if you want.” Jango said, “Please.”

It is nighttime on Tatooine and C-3PO and R2 are working on moisture evaporators. C-3PO said, “This really is a boring job. I wish there was more action around here.” R2 makes noise. C-3PO said, “Really?” C-3PO looks and he sees Jango entering the farm. C-3PO goes to him and he said, “C-3PO here. I look after this farm during the night. May I help you with something?” Jango said, “You could help me with this...” Jango takes out his blaster and he shoots at C-3PO and C-3PO gets destroyed and he falls to the ground. Jango Fett bangs on the door and shoots at it. Anakin, Padme, and Owen wake up and they go to the front of the house to see what's up. Jango barges in and he aims his blasters up. Jango said, “Which one of you is a Jedi named Anakin Skywalker?” Owen points to Anakin and he said, “He is.” Anakin said, “I've never heard of that person in my life.” Jango said, “Don't play dumb with me. I know it is you. Come out... all of you.” Jango gathers Anakin, Padme, and Owen outside the house. Jango aims his guns at them and he said, “Anakin Skywalker. You are wanted under the order of Darth Maul. You may turn yourself in now and no one else will have to suffer.” Anakin said, “I've got better things to do than this.” Anakin takes out his lightsaber and he turns it on and Jango starts shooting at him. Anakin deflects all the shots with his lightsaber and he jumps onto the roof of Owen's house. Jango uses his jet-pack missile launcher to launch a missile at the roof. Anakin jumps out of the way and the missile destroys the roof of Owen's house.

Anakin gets to Jango and Jango shoots Anakin in the hand and he drops his lightsaber. Anakin and Jango get into a fist fight. Jango pushes Anakin aside and he uses his blasters to shoot at Anakin. Anakin dodges the shots and he uses the force and he knocks down a moisture evaporator and it falls and smashes on Jango. Anakin uses the force to get his lightsaber back. Anakin goes to Padme and he said, "Get C-3PO and R2. We are getting out of here. It is not safe for us." Anakin looks off in the distance and he sees Jango Fett's ship. Anakin goes up to it. Anakin opens the cockpit and he sees Boba Fett is in there. Anakin said, "What are you carrying in this ship?" Boba said, "Nothing." Anakin turns on his lightsaber and he aims it at Boba. Anakin said, "Would you like to tell me now?" Boba raises his hands in fear. Boba said, "We have to protect this key that Master Maul trusted us with." Boba hands the force-field key over to Anakin. Anakin takes it and he said, "Thanks. Is there anything more?" Boba said, "We also have a map of the planet Korriban and the location of Darth Maul's secret lab where he is hiding his plans for his new weapon." Anakin said, "Give it all to me." Boba hands over everything to Anakin and Anakin leaves. As Anakin leaves, he said, "You are very cooperative, I have a feeling we will be working together one day." Anakin leaves the scene.

Anakin and Padme get back in the ship. Padme takes the remains of C-3PO and she dumps them in the ship. R2 looks over at the remains. Anakin said, "What happened to 3PO? Did Jango do this?" Padme said, "I guess so." Anakin looks over at 3PO. Anakin somewhat reassembles his parts. R2 starts welding them back together. Anakin sees C-3PO's switch is fried. Anakin said, "I always keep a spare." Anakin finds a spare switch in the ship and he connects it to 3PO and he turns on 3PO. 3PO comes on and he said, "What happened? I cannot see anything." Anakin said, "I will fix that." Anakin tampers with the controls on 3PO's back. 3PO comes on and he said, "Bounty hunter, here now, I must warn them, oh no! He got me." Anakin said, "We're leaving this place now. I got a key to that force-field and I have some maps here of where Darth Maul is. This will help us for sure." They take off in the ship and leave the planet.

Chapter 6

Obi-Wan is in his Jedi Starfighter and he is in orbit of the gambling planet. Obi-Wan enters the planet's atmosphere and he lands his ship in a VIP landing space. A droid comes out and he said, "Hey, you cannot land here." Obi-Wan hands the droid a bag of Republic credits. The droid said, "Thanks for the money. Enjoy your stay." Obi-Wan walks around the grounds. He sees booths set up with different types of gambling activities and things to do with the race coming up. He sees a fortune telling booth. Obi-Wan enters it and there is a fortune teller there waving her hands around a crystal ball. Obi-Wan takes a seat. The fortune teller said, "You must be Master Kenobi from the Republic." Obi-Wan said, "You got that one right." The fortune teller said, "I will tell you your fortune since that is what you want to know." Obi-Wan said, "Of course." The fortune teller said, "The Republic is in grave danger." Obi-Wan said, "I kind of already knew that." The fortune teller said, "You don't understand. The Republic will die sometime within the next year." Obi-Wan said, "I kind of guessed that too." The fortune teller said, "This chain of events spawning from the death of the Republic later lead to your own death." Obi-Wan said, "How will I die." The fortune teller said, "You will die on a spherical space station that is armed with a super laser capable of destroying an entire planet. You will die at the hands of a villain that wears a black suit with a cool looking black helmet with a computer on his body. When you die, a young man that seems to think highly of you will scream, 'NO!'" Obi-Wan said, "Who is this young man?" The fortune teller said, "I don't know for sure who he is but I can see his future too. It looks good. It looks like the evil in the galaxy will end because of him. I would take care of this man at all costs if I were you." Obi-Wan said, "Thanks. I will look out for him." Obi-Wan leaves the tent and he said, "Fortune tellers, what do they know?"

Obi-Wan goes to the race track and he sits in the bleachers. Obi-Wan looks at the contestants entering the track. He sees the Professor in a small ship enter the track. He sees other contestants entering. He sees a ship with a sphere in the middle with two vertical platforms on both sides. Obi-Wan said, "That ship looks pretty cool. I've never seen anything like that before." The announcer takes the stage and he said, "Welcome to the race. This is the greatest race yet as we have some of the most daring contestants from across the galaxy in this race. Let the games begin!" The contestants start their engines and they are told to bolt so they do. They fly away from the start so they are not visible with the naked eye anymore. A screen comes on showing where they are.

The new fighter flies around the other contestants. One of the contestants in a giant robot and he punches down and destroys a contestant. The new fighter contestant shoots and destroys the giant robot. The Professor stays on the side of the track and ignores the other contestants. Most of the contestants get destroyed in the intricate canyon filled with bizarre twists and turns. They get through the canyon and they are back out in the open. There is one more rival contestant left that is not the Professor. He is flying a ship that looks like an X with lasers on it. He fires laser shots at the new fighter. The new fighter twists and turns around. The new fighter gets shot in the back and he is critically damaged. He gets shot at some more and he twists and moves around and he flies behind the X fighter and he shoots at the X fighter's R2 unit and destroys it. He keeps shooting at the X fighter and the X fighter loses control and he crashes into the ground. The new fighter goes at full throttle and he passes the finish line first. The Professor comes in second and last since everyone else got destroyed.

The new fighter lands and people cheer him on. The announcer said, "We have our winner. Let's see who this new champion is." The pilot of the new fighter leaves the ship and he is in a black pilot suit. He goes to the announcer and he takes his helmet off revealing he is Mace Windu. The pilot said, "Our new winner is... a Jedi?" Mace Windu said, "I know what the deal is with this place. This place is over." The announcer said, "You don't need to have that attitude towards us. You just won over five million Republic Credits which are good in the Confederacy too." Mace Windu said, "I know what your deal is here and it is over." The announcer said, "Fine because you asked for it." The announcer snaps his fingers and battle droids pop up from under the seats and they surround Mace Windu. Mace Windu takes out his lightsaber and he cuts down the droids. Obi-Wan takes out his lightsaber and he does the same thing. Master Valmer happens to be there too and he takes out his lightsaber and he slashes down the battle droids. The Slave I enters the arena and it lands there and Jango Fett gets out on his jet-pack. He takes out his blasters and he shoots at Mace Windu. Boba stays in the cockpit of the Slave I and he uses his blasters to shoot at things on the ground. Obi-Wan and Valmer hide behind a piece of debris. Obi-Wan said, "I don't see how Mace can stay out there with all this danger around him." Valmer said, "That Mace really is fearless. So am I. I got my fortune read to me from that fortune teller and she told me how I die. This is not how I die." Valmer enters the fray and he cuts down more battle droids. Master Valmer enters the new fighter and he takes control of it and he shoots at the Slave I and he damages it to a point where it no longer functions. He then aims the cannons on it at Jango Fett. Clone ships enter and the Clones finish off the droids and they surround Jango Fett. Mace still has his lightsaber drawn at Jango. Mace said, "In the name of the Republic, you are under arrest. You are coming in with us for questioning." Clones go to the Slave I and they pull Boba out of it and they arrest him. They place Jango and Boba in a prison cell in the Clone transport. Obi-Wan reunites with Mace Windu and the Professor. Obi-Wan said, "What is that new fighter?" Mace said, "The Professor just invented it. It is a new deadly fighter. It is called a Twin Ion Engine fighter." The Professor said, "I just call it a TIE fighter for short." Mace said, "Our clone fighters are becoming inadequate for the new fighters the Confederacy has. We need something new to take them out." Obi-Wan's communicator is activated. Obi-Wan takes out his holographic communicator and Mace and the Professor look over it too. Anakin is on it. Anakin said, "Master, it is me Anakin. I am located at the point where you can enter the force-field if you have the keys. I stole one of the keys off Jango and I am not sure about the other key. Obi-Wan said, "Palpatine gave us the other key. Stay put and we will be there in a reasonable amount of time." Obi-Wan deactivates the communicator. Obi-Wan said, "This is great. This means that we can now cross the force-field and we can make our attack at Korriban. Mace said, "We will need to check with the senate first."

Chapter 7

People in the senate are panicking. People are rioting in the streets and protesting. They hold signs that say, "Palpatine is a fraud." They burn posters of Palpatine. Palpatine takes the stage in the senate. Palpatine said, "The senate has voted. Under the law of the senate act 3581, I am now the main dictator of the Republic. Everyone shall do what I say. I say that we go to Korriban and find Darth Maul and end this war." Mace Windu and Yoda are there watching this. Mace said, "This is how democracy and freedom ends." Yoda said, "Very little hope there is. Dark times ahead we have."

Obi-Wan is packing up and getting ready for the attack on Korriban. Organa enters Obi-Wan's place. Obi-Wan said, "Organa, how is it? I am sorry to hear about what happened in the senate today." Organa said, "I hope Palpatine is mature about the situation and will give up his power once this war is over. If this war even will be over after the attack on Korriban." Obi-Wan said, "That's what they are hoping for. The Mon Calamari are helping us too and they said they built an armada of their ships to surround Korriban. If what I heard is true, the Confederacy won't stand a chance against us." Organa said, "That's good. I used to like being in the senate before I was drafted to this war. They say we are short on clones." Obi-Wan said, "That's what they say but we still seem to have plenty. I don't trust the senate anymore. I don't even trust Palpatine. Things have been going bad around the Republic since he was elected into office. Poverty rates have drastically increased in the last few years. People have been drafted into this war and it is their only means of survival." Organa said, "Let's hope it all ends tomorrow." Obi-Wan said, "I wish."

Transports from the Republic leave the planet Coruscant and they head for the part of the force-field the keys are to be placed into. It is a small docking station. They connect to it and Anakin's ship connects to it. They enter the small dock and Obi-Wan and Anakin get into the room that the keys are to be placed in. They place their keys in and the controls for the force-field come on. Obi-Wan takes control of it and he switches all of the force-fields to be turned off. The force-fields are deactivated. Clone bombers land on the ships that supported the force-field and they plant bombs on them. The Confederacy ships explode. Clone bombers keep destroying all the ships that were supporting the force-fields. They see the crystals that were powering them float through space. The clone fighters shoot at the crystals and destroy them. Anakin's ship lands in the hanger bay of the Republic transport. Anakin reunites with Obi-Wan and everyone else. Obi-Wan said, "So we finally get to have a proper reunion. How was it like where you were?" Anakin said, "Dull and depressing. I am never going back there again." Obi-Wan said, "It does not look like you will ever have to. We took down the force-field. We will head for Korriban."

They enter the orbit of Korriban and Mon Calamari ships patrol the orbit. Obi-Wan said, "We will need some people to stay up here in orbit for now. Anakin, I am putting you in charge of the orbital crew." Anakin said, "Why me?" Obi-Wan said, "It is dangerous down there. We do not know what to expect down there. It is much safer up here. You will be in command of the orbital cruisers. There is likely to be enemy fighters up here that will attack us too. Stay put." Obi-Wan joins the rest of the Jedi as well as some clones and Organa and the Professor and they head down for the surface of the planet.

They land on the planet and they trek through the desert. They come across Darth Maul's castle and it is closed off by a giant gate. Clone tanks enter the scene and they charge up their fire and they fire blasts at the gates. The gate barely takes any damage. The clone tanks instead ram the gates down. They ram them down and they destroy the gates and the Republic forces enter Darth Maul's arena. Darth Maul leaves the castle and he is on the balcony and he looks down at the Republic forces. Darth Maul said, "Republic. I am such a fan of you. You have given me years of entertainment. Sadly that entertainment won't exist after today since you are all going to get killed. Enjoy your ends." Battle droids come pouring out of the walls and Battle droids armed with lightsabers jump out and cut down a few clones. Obi-Wan cuts down a few droids. He looks at a portable computer that has the maps Anakin got from Jango. Obi-Wan looks for where the lab is located. He sees there is a lab there and he said, "Valmer, Sin Dralig, come with me. Cover me." Valmer and Sin Dralig come with Obi-Wan and they enter the lab. Droids with lightsabers are in there. The Jedi fight off the droids and they take over the lab. Obi-Wan said, "I need to transfer these plans to my memory stick. Obi-Wan connects his memory stick into Darth Maul's computer. He looks over the plans. He sees design readouts of the Death Star and Obi-Wan sees it and he said, "Oh dear!" Valmer said, "What is it?" Valmer looks at the screen too. He said, "It is a giant sphere that can destroy planets." Obi-Wan said, "The fortune teller told me I was going to get killed on a sphere that can destroy planets." Valmer said, "You know those fortune tellers are just for entertainment right?" Obi-Wan said, "You had your fortune read. What did it say about your death?" Valmer said, "The fortune teller said I was going to die in Palpatine's office. That's all it said. I don't know why I would die there. I would rather die doing something brave and heroic." Obi-Wan said, "Something is up here." Obi-Wan completely transfers all the data of the plans onto his memory stick and they leave the lab. They join Yoda as he has his lightsaber out and he cuts down a few battle droids.

There is a battle droid at a cannon shooting down Jedi and clones in the arena. Yoda uses the force and he makes the cannon fire at Darth Maul's castle. He makes part of it get destroyed. The main security gate on the castle closes. More and more Jedi and clones get killed off by the droids with the lightsabers. Yoda uses the force on a lot of them and he destroys them. Mace cuts down a few droids and then he sees he is surrounded with battle droids. There are fewer and fewer clones in the battle. Darth Maul looks at everything and he said, "Face it Jedi. You are finished. This is where the war ends. If you continue to fight, you will be killed." Mace said, "It is more honorable to die a hero than it is to continue to live as being one of your slaves." Maul said, "That settles it then."

In orbit, droid fighters are everywhere. The Mon Calamari ships shoot them down. The droid fighters are causing significant damage to the Republic transport Anakin is on with Padme, R2, and 3PO. Anakin said, "I sense something. I sense our friends below are in danger and they need me." Padme said, "Don't go down there. I love you and I would hate to lose you. Our friends may be dead down there but we are not dead yet." Anakin said, "They are my friends and I cannot live with myself knowing they are dead because of me not taking part in something that I should take part in." Padme said, "Don't do it." Anakin said, "I have to." A clone comes to Anakin and he said, "Commander Skywalker, we are taking heavy damage. We are evacuating to the main Mon Calamari frigate." Anakin said, "Padme, take the droids to the Mon Calamari frigate over there. I am going down to the planet to save my friends." Padme said, "If you wish. Don't get angry at me if you get killed down there." Anakin said, "I know." Anakin gets in the ship he had this whole time and he takes it down to the surface of the planet.

Anakin lands on the planet and he treks through the desert. He sees a dead clone lying out in the desert. Anakin looks at him. Anakin said, "Why is there just one clone out here?" Anakin continues to trek through the desert. Anakin gets to Darth Maul's castle. He sees his friends are prisoners. Anakin takes out his lightsaber and activates it and he throws it with the force and he cuts down the battle droids closely guarding the Jedi. The Jedi have been freed. Anakin gets his lightsaber back and Anakin continues to fight off the droids. Obi-Wan said, "Anakin, thank you for saving us." Anakin said, "It was nothing." Obi-Wan said, "We need to take out the rest of these Confederate droids and Darth Maul will finally surrender. Anakin said, "Where is Darth Maul?" Obi-Wan said, "He is in that castle over there. It is closed off though." Anakin said, "Where are the controls for the door?" Obi-Wan said, "None of us know." Anakin sees Darth Maul is just standing on a balcony unshielded. Anakin sees that there are plenty of bricks and formations from the destruction Yoda caused earlier on the castle that he could just climb it. Anakin said, "I have a better idea than just fighting off the droids." Anakin runs for the castle and he climbs it. Obi-Wan said, "Anakin. Don't do it." Yoda said, "Defiant of your orders he is." Obi-Wan said, "He was our last hope." Yoda said, "No, there is another."

Anakin climbs up the side of the castle and Darth Maul enters the castle from his balcony. Anakin climbs to the balcony and he gets on the balcony and he enters the castle. Master Sin Dralig finds a room on the side of the castle where prisoners are being held. Sin Dralig frees the prisoners. Anakin runs inside the castle and he sees the place looks like a medieval church. Anakin said, "Where are you Darth Maul?" Darth Maul comes up from behind. Darth Maul said, "You have done well young Skywalker, but you are not a Jedi yet." Anakin walks up to Darth Maul and Anakin takes out his lightsaber." Darth Maul takes out his duel bladed lightsaber. Anakin and Darth Maul clash their blades together. Anakin hits both blades with his lightsaber and Darth Maul kicks Anakin in the body and Anakin flips backwards and lands on the ground below. Anakin gets up and holds his lightsaber out at Darth Maul. Darth Maul jumps to Anakin and they duel some more. Anakin strikes one blade and Darth Maul hits Anakin's lightsaber and they clash their blades together and they move around the room and they hit a wire on the wall and the power goes out in the place and it is completely dark except for the blades of their lightsabers and their silhouettes. They duel more and they swing their blades around fast and they constantly hit each other. Anakin cuts Darth Maul's lightsaber in half. Darth Maul only has one blade of his lightsaber now. They move as they duel to a window that leads to a courtyard. Darth Maul keeps getting Anakin closer to the window. Darth Maul beats Anakin's lightsaber with his. Darth Maul cuts off Anakin's hand holding the lightsaber and it falls out the window and into the courtyard.

Anakin screams in pain. Darth Maul said, "You have been beaten. It is useless to resist. You do not understand to power of the dark side. It is a great thing. The Republic is filled with corruption and unfairness. My Master, Darth Sidious is also the Chancellor of the Republic. He rules both sides in this war. He cares deeply about you. If you join our side, the war will be over and there will be no more corrupt Republic." Anakin looks down into the window. Anakin said, "If you want me, you just have to get me." Anakin falls down into the window and he falls out of the castle and he lands in the courtyard where his lightsaber is.

Darth Maul's droids enter the scene. Darth Maul said, "Bring me my shuttle. We are getting off this place." Darth Maul leaves the planet in his shuttle. Mon Calamari transports come in and they blast down the remaining droids. Obi-Wan gets a sense that Anakin is in danger. Obi-Wan goes to the courtyard and he picks up Anakin and his lightsaber. Obi-Wan brings Anakin into the transport. They leave the planet. They get into orbit where droid fighters are there and they have destroyed most of the Republic frigates and only the Mon Calamari ones are left. They board with the main prime Mon Calamari frigate. They bring Anakin to the medical ward and Padme sees him there. She looks at him and she gives him a disgusted look when she sees Anakin's right hand is missing. A few of the Mon Calamari frigates get destroyed and the main one and some of the other ones are still intact and they leave the scene.

Chapter 8

Darth Maul is in his shuttle and he flies it to Coruscant and he goes to a building in a ghetto. He sees the Chancellor there dressed in a black robe. Chancellor said, "Darth Maul. You have come." Darth Maul said, "Jango has been captured and Korriban has been mostly destroyed and our force-field with all the ships in it have been destroyed. I don't know now which side is going to win. Anakin still refuses to join us." Chancellor said, "He will join us in time. A new age is upon us."

Anakin is in the Professor's lab and the Professor gives Anakin a new hand and he runs tests on it. The Professor said, "Your new hand is working just fine. It may take time to adjust to it but it will work." Anakin said, "Thanks." The Chancellor enters the place and he dresses as he does when he is in the senate. Palpatine said, "Anakin Skywalker. I heard about your injury. I am glad to see that you are alright. I would hate it if anything bad happened to you. You are my favorite Jedi and I know you are the best." Anakin said, "Mace Windu and Obi-Wan don't seem to think so." Palpatine said, "In time, they will see that you really were the best Jedi in the order. I suggest you train more. You will have to fight Darth Maul again. I know you can beat him." The Professor fixes up C-3PO. C-3PO said, "Thank the maker. I am whole again. I work fine again." The Professor said, "Just stay out of that kind of trouble." C-3PO said, "It is not my fault that Jango shot me." Palpatine said, "Jango is in the Republic high prison now and he will be interrogated. I don't think we have anything more to fear from him."

Obi-Wan, Mace Windu, and Yoda are in the Jedi counsel and they look over at the sunset. Obi-Wan said, "Anakin told me that Darth Maul told him that Palpatine is the ruler of both sides in this war." Mace said, "You cannot trust anything that Darth Maul says." Obi-Wan said, "What if it is true? It would explain why Palpatine was so obsessed with becoming a dictator and to lead us into the lion's den." Yoda said, "Cloudy our visions are of the future. All we can say for sure is that dark times are ahead of us. The Republic is likely to fall within the next few months. We don't know what is going to come next." Mace said, "We must be prepared. We will run tests and drills and we will be ready for the next big thing. Where is Anakin right now?" Obi-Wan said, "He told me he was going to do some Jedi training."

Anakin and Padme sit at a bench and they show that they are in love. C-3PO and R2 look over at it. C-3PO said, "I'm no expert here but I would say they are in love."
